Want to contribute content but not sure where to start? Or just need some help getting a project off the ground? We've taken a stab at answering these and other questions below.

Q: I'd like to contribute some data or a project, how do I do that?

A: First you have to become a contributor! To do that, you'll need to follow these steps.

1. Create a Github account
2. Open the homepage and click login at the top right.
3. Sign in with your github credentials.
4. Authorize access in github.
5. Return to portal, refresh the page, and begin.

Q: Wait, so if I can't upload my dataset here, where do I put it?

A: Wherever you'd like! Your solution would depend on the data type and file size. Need more content here.

If you're not sure, shoot an email to info@open-austin.org. Or ping us on slack!

Q: I'm interested in creating a project, what tools would you recommend starting with?

A: Again, depends on the project. Need more content here.

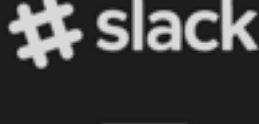

For ideas, browse through our community's projects at <http://open-austin.org>. Or ping us on slack!

Q: I have an idea but need some help figuring out where to start.

A: There's a community of people doing awesome things in your area and willing to help. Learn about Open Austin at <http://open-austin.org/about> and join us at our next meetup.
